Program overview:

This character building, round table session is designed to successfully incorporate ethics and values into the core of decision-making. With an experienced facilitator this peer-to-peer personal collaboration moves participants to greater self-awareness by encouraging reflection and values clarification on individual, organisational and societal level. It puts ethics into practice!

Who should apply?

Only serious professionals who are strongly committed to continuous growth and personal development, and who believe that despite the great character they already possess, better is always possible.

How will you benefit?

Through the sessions participants develop a number of concrete skills for integrating ethical concepts into business decision-making and management practices they face on a daily basis. Some of the skills include:

- ✓ Develop a greater self-understanding.
- ✓ Be able to create transformation within yourself and your environment.
- ✓ Have the courage to speak up when values are compromised.
- ✓ Understand how to use the power and responsibilities you have over others.
- ✓ Become a powerful influencer.

Small steps can create big changes!

Venue: Public sessions are held at a convenient CBD location.
Call us to discuss in-house delivery.

Please contact our office to inquire about dates.

Investment: $1,500 (+GST)

Investment includes:

- ✓ 12 x 2 hour meetings over a 6 month period.
- ✓ Experienced facilitator
- ✓ Light refreshments at each meeting
